What is General comment No. 25 and why is it important?

What do we want to find out?

- Where, by whom, how and why is General comment No. 25 being used?
- Is General comment No. 25 proving useful and genuinely impactful (and if not, why not?)?
- Where can we see signs of impact of the General comment No. 25 and where are they missing?
- What can be learned for advocacy of children's rights in digital environments of the impact or otherwise of General comment No. 25?

Where are we looking?

GC25 in the UNCRC review process

The UN system more broadly

Regional entities and legislation

Case studies of countries (multitude of stakeholders)

We invite you to contribute!

- How do you use General comment No. 25 in your work and in what way has it been useful (or not)?
- What signs of impact of the General comment have you identified your organisation, institution, country or region?
- In your view, what would help with the further dissemination and impact of GC25, and do you see any barriers to be overcome?
